Spreenauten GmbH has been one of the largest and leading Motorola partners in Europe for many years - licensed for DMR, TETRA incl. Dimetra Express. Together with our local partners and our extremely effective network, we provide services worldwide on site.

As Motorola Platinum Partner we have access to excellent purchasing conditions, which we are happy to pass on to our customers. Accreditation as a Motorola Platinum Partner also requires that the partner has demonstrated the highest level of reliability and that all activities are carried out using state-of-the-art technology.

In addition to the installation of DMR radio cells based on Motorola repeater technology, we have specialised in the programming of Motorola DMR radios (such as the Motorola DP4800e). We are also happy to evaluate and optimize existing installations and to act as consultants. The latter in all areas of radio technology.

Are you looking for a Motorola partner? The Spreenauten GmbH is at your disposal around the clock and 7 days a week.

Advantages of working with an official Motorola partner:

Original Motorola Products

From a customer perspective, the benefits of working with a Motorola partner are immense. Above all, you can be sure to always and exclusively receive safe & original Motorola technology (radios / radio cells / batteries / accessories) and services at the latest state of the art.

Radio technology according to specifications

In addition, radio technology purchased through us is also precisely designed for the respective market and meets the requirements of the local authorities (in Germany, this is the Federal Network Agency). This advantage also has an extremely positive effect on the support or warranty claim.

Strongly extended warranty for Motorola radios, radio cells and accessories

As a Motorola Platinum Partner, we participate in Motorola's "Service from the Start" program and are happy to extend this warranty up to 5 + 3 years, during which time we carry out repairs free of charge. Of course, this also applies to the support and regular updates of the radios and radio cells.

Spreenauten GmbH - Your Motorola partner with experience

As a Motorola Platinum Partner, we have experience in the field of radio technology since 1999 and our clients include companies of all sizes, the public sector, as well as major events and festivals. The acquired know-how allows us to offer and implement upcoming projects promptly. Our support and our guarantee promise are to our knowledge unique in the industry.
