We are very pleased to be able to count the tax consultants Sander and especially Felix Sander as our tax mastermind (... in this version also available as management consultant) among our friends.

SANDER

In the course of our business activities we have already worked with several consultants (tax consultants, management consultants), but the Berlin tax consultancy Sander is unique.

Excellent communication, always on topic, always close and direct. The current, almost every evening (handwritten) newsletter on the very special situation 2020 (Covid-19) is a good example of how extremely committed these tax consultants are.

As with our banker, the same applies here: Without Sander and especially without Felix Sander a lot of things would not have been possible and a lot of things are now much easier.

Thank you very much, Felix - you are great!
